

Board Vacancy

The Board of Laramie County Commissioners has a vacancy to fill on the Cheyenne-Laramie County Economic Development Joint Powers Board. This Board oversees public funds from the city and county for economic development. The Board assists the public and private sectors for the purpose of assisting economic growth in Laramie County. It meets monthly at 7 am.

The Board consists of seven members, three members who are appointed by the City of Cheyenne, three members appointed by the County Commissioners and one member jointly appointed by both governing bodies. All seven members must be residents and qualified electors of Laramie County. The person filling the vacant term will be appointed until 6/30/2011. Thereafter, the member may be eligible to be reappointed for a full term of three years. Application will be accepted until filled.
