

With just one day remaining for early voting, more than 3000 voters have voted early in the atrium of the Laramie County Governmental Complex. More than 8000 voters have voted by absentee ballot.

Laramie County has 36,419 registered voters.

The last day for early voting in the atrium is Monday, Aug. 17, the day before the Primary Election. Hours for early voting are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Voters who have not yet turned their absentee ballots to the County Clerk's office must do so no later than 7:00 p.m. on Election Day, Aug. 18. Ballots arriving after the 7:00 p.m. deadline will not be counted. Voters can deliver their ballots to the Clerk's office, 309 W 20th Street, or use the absentee ballot drop box, located on Carey Avenue between 19th and 20th St., up until 7:00 p.m. on the day of the election.

Voters in Albin , Burns, and Pine Bluffs may use absentee drop boxes located in the offices of the town clerks. The last ballot drop off in Albin is Monday, Aug. 17, at 3:00 p.m. The deadline for the Burns ballot drop box is Monday, Aug. 17, at 4:00 p.m. and the deadline for the Pine Bluffs ballot drop box is Tuesday, Aug. 18, at 4:00 p.m.

Before dropping off their absentee ballots, voters should make sure the affidavit on the ballot envelope is signed.

On Primary Election Day, Tuesday, Aug. 18, voters will cast their ballot in any one of seven vote centers in the county – Storey Gym, North Christian Church, CFD Events Center, David Romero Park, Laramie County Community College CCI building, Event Center at Archer and Pine Bluffs Community Center. Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Persons who are not yet registered to vote may register and vote on Primary Election Day. A Wyoming driver's license or other government-issued identification is required to register.
